

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING VAT RETURNS

The following instructions explain how taxable persons identified for VAT purposes should complete a VAT return in electronic form via the eDavki portal. The Value Added Tax Act (hereinafter: the ZDDV-1), the Rules on the Implementation of the Value Added Tax Act (hereinafter: the Rules), the Tax Procedure Act (hereinafter: the ZDavP-2), and the Financial Administration Act constitute the legal basis for the instructions.

Taxable persons shall state their liability on VAT returns which shall be submitted as electronic forms using the eDavki system.

If taxable persons don't have any business events in the whole tax period, they shall complete this form by entering zeroes into individual fields.

Taxable persons, who have already submitted VAT returns and who have later (before expiry of the time limit for submission of these returns) established that they have incorrectly calculated the tax liability, may replace the already submitted return by a new one unless they have claimed VAT refund on the basis of this return.

If taxable persons fail to submit VAT returns or fail to submit them in a prescribed way or within the prescribed time limits or they fail to state the prescribed data in VAT returns, they commit an offence, for which a fine up to 125,000 EUR shall be imposed.

DATA FOR PREPARATION OF VAT RETURNS

All taxable persons shall submit VAT returns to the tax office and these returns shall contain all data necessary for calculation of tax, for which liability for charging occurred, for deductions, for the total amount of transactions in connection with tax charged and deductions carried out as well as for the amount of all transactions exempt.

In their VAT return, a taxable person must also include data on any subsequent adjustments of VAT charged and of VAT deductions in the VAT return in which they found errors (and not in the VAT return for the period that is being adjusted or the VAT return for the period in which the error occurred); they enter such data in appropriate fields on the VAT return. In the event that the taxable person adjusts errors from previous tax periods on the basis of self-declaration in their current VAT return due to the low amount of VAT charged or excess VAT deduction, they must calculate and pay interest at an annual rate of 3 % on the VAT amount subject to adjustment, as laid down in Article 88b of the ZDDV-1.

A taxable person who, on the basis of self-declaration, subsequently submits a VAT return which they failed to submit within the prescribed period must pay the declared liability at the time of submitting the VAT return and calculate and pay interest at an annual rate of 3 %, as laid down in Article 88c of the ZDDV-1.

A taxable person who includes adjusted errors from previous tax periods in accordance with Article 88b of the ZDDV-1 and/or subsequently submits a VAT return which they failed to submit within the prescribed period under conditions laid down in Article 88c of the ZDDV-1 avoids liability for a minor offence.

Taxable persons who use the paid invoice charged on cash basis enter data into VAT returns on the grounds of payments received for invoices issued and on the grounds of payments made for invoices received. Transactions, which are excluded from the special arrangement of charging VAT according to the paid invoice charged on cash basis and exempt supplies of goods and services, and exempt purchase of goods are entered by taxable persons on the grounds of invoices issued and received.

Data about business events of the tax period shall be entered into VAT returns. All amounts are VAT excluded and in euros.

A VAT return must also be submitted by a person referred to in point d of paragraph one of Article 4 of the ZDDV-1 who calculates VAT only for the intra-Community acquisition of goods and is liable for the payment of VAT on the basis of point 5 of paragraph one of Article 76 of the ZDDV-1; on their VAT return, they must indicate the amount of VAT that they are obliged to pay as the acquirer of goods within the time limit referred to in paragraph three of Article 77 of the ZDDV-1 and, in addition to providing data on the taxable person from the tax register, complete the fields 23, 24, 24b, 32 and 51.

A VAT return must also be submitted by a person referred to in point d of paragraph one of Article 4 of the ZDDV-1 who calculates VAT only from services received and is liable for the payment of VAT on the basis of point 3 of paragraph one of Article 76 of the ZDDV-1; on their VAT return, they must indicate the amount of VAT that they are obliged to pay as the recipient of services within the time limit referred to in paragraph three of Article 77 of the ZDDV-1 and, in addition to providing data on the taxable person from the tax register, complete the fields 23a, 24a, 24c, 32a and 51 for services received from a taxable person from another Member State or fields 25, 25a, 25b, 31 and 51 for services received from a taxable person from a third country.

VAT returns shall be submitted also by taxable persons from Article 94 of the ZDDV-1, who are identified for VAT purposes on the basis of Article 78 paragraph 4 of the ZDDV-1 for carrying out services for which recipients of services are liable for payment of VAT in another Member State. Field 12 shall also be completed in addition to data about taxable persons from the tax register.

If taxable persons not established in Slovenia appoint tax representatives, DDV-O forms shall be submitted by tax representatives. Tax representatives state their VAT identification numbers in DDV-O forms and VAT identification numbers of the represented persons (if these persons are not identified for VAT purposes in Slovenia, they state VAT identification numbers, under which the represented persons are identified for VAT purposes in the Member State of establishment) and establish tax liabilities of the represented persons and state it in VAT returns for the tax period, for which DDV-O forms are completed. Tax representatives submit DDV-O forms for each represented person individually.

Field "Self-declaration"

In the event of submission of a VAT return in accordance with Article 88c of the ZDDV-1 after the expiry of the prescribed period, the field "Self-declaration" must be ticked on the DDV-O form. In the section "Self-declaration/adjustment", interest is calculated automatically at an annual rate of 3 % for the period from the first day following the last working day of the month following the expiry of the tax period for which the VAT return should have been submitted to the day of the submission of the VAT return. A VAT return submitted in that manner may not be replaced with a new VAT return.

Field "Application for submission after the expiry of the prescribed time limit"

If for justifiable reasons a taxable person cannot submit a self-assessment tax return within the prescribed time limit, the tax authorities, on the proposal of the taxable person, authorise the submission of the self-assessment tax return after the expiry of the prescribed time limit in accordance with Article 52 of the ZDavP-2. Justifiable reasons are also considered to be well-founded reasons which could not be foreseen or averted by the taxable person and which prevent the submission of the self-assessment tax return within the prescribed time limit.

Self-assessment tax returns submitted in accordance with the tax authority's authorisation after the expiry of the prescribed time limit are deemed to be submitted on time; in their VAT return, the taxable person must tick the field "Application for submission after the expiry of the prescribed time limit".

VAT Deducted from Purchase of Goods and Services, Acquisition of Goods and Services Received from Other EU Member States and from Import

Contents of the field	Particularities and warnings
The amount shall be entered of VAT deducted from purchase of goods and services, acquisition of goods and services received from other Member States, as well as from the import, where the taxable person has a right to deduction.	The taxable person does not have a right to deduction of VAT charged abroad. Refund of VAT, charged abroad, may be claimed from foreign tax administrations.
The amount shall be entered of VAT deducted on purchase of goods and services received and prepayments made from Article 76.a of the ZDDV-1.	The taxable person, who carries out partially exempt and partially taxable transactions, has a right to VAT deductions only in the part, which refers to taxable transactions.

Field 43

Deduction from the Flat-Rate Compensation at a Rate of 8 %

Contents of the field	Particularities and warnings
The value of VAT deduction shall be entered from the flat rate compensation in the amount of 8 % of the redemption value.	The deduction may only be implemented if the supplier has had a valid permit for flat-rate compensation at purchase of goods or services. We recommend the checking of validity of permit on eDavki ((Access (Vpogledi) – VAT-PN Disclosures (DDV-PN Razkritja) – Disclosure of data on flat-rate compensation of taxable person – Razkritje podatkov o avšalnem nadomestilu zavezanca)).

Field 51
VAT Liability

Contents of the field
The amount of difference shall be entered between VAT charged (the sum of fields No. 21 to 26) and VAT deducted (the sum of fields No. 41 to 43) if the amount of VAT charged is larger than that of VAT deducted.

Field 52
Surplus VAT

Contents of the field
The amount of difference shall be entered between VAT deducted (the sum of fields No. 41 to 43) and VAT charged (the sum of fields No. 21 to 26) if the amount of VAT deducted is larger than that of VAT charged.

SURPLUS AMOUNTS FROM PREVIOUS TAX PERIODS, WHICH ARE NOT STATED IN THIS RETURN, SHALL ALSO BE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION AT PAYMENT OF LIABILITIES

Field 03 Taxable persons shall cross it out if they have only partial rights to VAT deducted on the grounds of the deductible proportion.

Field 04 Those taxable persons shall cross it out, who claim VAT refund on the grounds of surplus in the current tax period or surplus from previous returns and whose total surplus amount exceeds the liability of the current tax period.

If the taxable person marks "yes", the tax authority refunds VAT surplus of the current period:

- increased by any possible VAT surplus transfers from previous tax periods,
- decreased by any possible other taxes whose due dates expired (Article 73 paragraph 4 of the ZDDV-1).

Field 05 must be completed by a taxable person who adjusts errors from previous tax periods in their current VAT return in accordance with Article 88b of the ZDDV-1. The taxable person must include adjustments for previous tax periods in appropriate fields on their VAT return and, for the purpose of interest calculation, in the section "Self-declaration/adjustment", enter by tax period the VAT amount (positive values) that is subject to adjustment. Interest is calculated automatically.

If, for a tax period, the taxable person shows a VAT liability (field 51) and adjustments for previous tax periods in the section "Self-declaration/adjustment", the total amount for payment equals the sum of the amount in field 51 and the interest calculated pursuant to Article 88b of the ZDDV-1.

If, for a tax period, the taxable person shows a VAT surplus (field 52) and adjustments for previous tax periods in the section "Self-declaration/adjustment", the surplus is reduced by the amount of interest calculated pursuant to Article 88b of the ZDDV-1. If the amount of interest calculated pursuant to Article 88b of the ZDDV-1 exceeds the VAT surplus (field 52), the difference between these two amounts is the total amount for payment.

If the taxable person shows no VAT liability (field 51) and no VAT surplus (field 52), the total amount for payment equals the amount of interest calculated pursuant to Article 88b of the ZDDV-1.

If the taxable person who shows a VAT liability (field 51) submits their VAT return after the expiry of the prescribed period and, on the DDVO form, ticks the field "Self-declaration", interest is calculated automatically. The total amount for payment equals the sum of the amount in field 51 and the interest calculated pursuant to Article 88c of the ZDDV-1.
